

Reading Green Park

New station construction

This scheme is led by Reading Borough Council (RBC), and Network Rail have recently worked with RBC and the Department for Transport to obtain an additional £2.015m to provide to the council to complete the last stages of this project. The work is progressing well, and we are on course for the station to be ready to be opened this summer (2022).